

Adult Learning & Learner Differences

Chapter: Adult Learning & Learner Differences

Adults learn differently; reach them all.

Andragogy - The study of how adults learn.

Self-directed - Adults want input and choices.

Experience - Build on what they already know.

Relevance - Connect every lesson to their goals.

Learner differences - Vary methods for styles, intelligences, and backgrounds.

Intrinsic motivation - The learner's own desire to master the craft.